Quotes From The News

By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

WASHINGTON — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara, resisting congressional pressure for the bombing of MIG fighter bases in North Vietnam:

"Under present circumstances, and this belief can change as time goes by, we think the loss in U.S. lives will be less if we pursue our present target policy than they would be were we to attack those airfields."

ADEN — A British staff officer, explaining army tactics in the riot-torn British crown colony of Aden where Arabs are rioting for independence:

"We are just letting them go grinding round and round until they tire out."

EUGENE, Ore. — University of Oregon student body president Henry Drummond, who was drafted after telling his draft board he could not longer accept in good conscience his student deferment:

"It is morally wrong for young working men to be conscripted to fight and perhaps die in a major war while college students continue to enjoy their civilian lives."

CHICAGO — Democratic Mayor Richard J. Daley, who runs the nation's last big political machine, predicting the outcome of today's mayoral election:

"It will be an overwhelming and substantial victory, a vote of confidence for the administration."

A Bible Thought For Today

And the multitude that went before and that followed, cried saying, Hosanna to the son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. —Matthew 21:9.
God's Christ still needs the loyalty of the common people.

N.Y. Yankees Get John Kennedy In Trade Yesterday

PORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (UPI) — The New York Yankees played by shortstop problems since the retirement of Tony Kubek, have obtained slick fielding John Kennedy from the Los Angeles Dodgers in return for outfielder-first baseman John Miller, pitcher Jack Cullen and cash.

Yankee Manager Ralph Houk immediately installed Kennedy as his number one shortstop with Ruben Amaro being sent to the bench.

The Dodgers have sent Miller and Cullen to their Pacific coast league farm at Spokane. Also going to Los Angeles' minor league affiliate is infielder-outfielder Roy White.

White will remain Yankee property, however.

Kennedy, a sure-gloved light-hitting infielder will be coming back to the American League after a two year absence. After the 1964 season he and Claude Osteen were dealt to the Dodgers from the Washington Senators in exchange for Frank Howard, Phil Ortega, Pete Reiser and Ken McMullen. Kennedy hit .261 in 125 games last year and has a lifetime average of .213.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U. S. Agency for International Development (AID) is planning to expand the size of its staff in South Vietnam from 1,400 to 2,000.

AID officials announced the start of a retraining drive Monday to sign up the additional staff. An agency employee spends 18 months in Vietnam if his family remains in the United States; 24 months if his family lives in so-called "safe havens" nearby such as Hong Kong, Manila or Bangkok.

"When she makes a hit with the boss."

"When the golf season starts."

"The day after you forget your wedding anniversary."

"Just to see her smile."

"When she burns the steak."

"Anytime you put your foot in your mouth."

"Just to prove what a nice guy you are."

They could also have added, the day after you forget her birthday and Mother's Day.

Poor old Sport figures this is a rough world.

He was standing in the yard Sunday barking at a horse passing by. A gigantic dog was running along side the horse and took off after Sport. Now Sport is a big dog, but he's just a pup and was no match for this Goliath. We hollered, and the fellow on the horse hollered. Sport was shrieking and Lady was barking.

We had pandemonium around there for a while, and finally this big dog gets off of Sport and goes on his way. Sport limped around for a few minutes, but he was not hurt, just scared to death.

The one in real danger was Lady. She was up the driveway from us and we could not get to her. If that dog had grabbed her, it would have been curtains for sure.

The dog world is sort of like basketball. Size really counts.

Felks who have put out annuals spent some anxious moments yesterday evening and last night. By golly it was cold.

Went out early this morning to survey the scene and everything was standing up nice and crisp so apparently no damage was done.

Senator Stephen Young of Ohio in a recent newsletter said "Congress is likely to strengthen the truth-in-packaging law. Deceptive packaging was much discussed at a recent women's club meeting. Of the girls in attendance, more than one-third tinted their hair, four or five had permanent waves, an overwhelming majority wore high-heeled fashions, one-fourth were wearing wigs, nearly all wore nail polish and eye makeup, and all wore lipstick. Three or four members present plucked their eyebrows, some wore false eyelashes, many had other cosmetic camouflage. They unanimously agreed deceptive packaging is a great wrong."

Charles Buckner was the losing pitcher, and was taken out in the sixth and replaced by Randy Barnes. Buckner gave up nine hits and ten runs in the five innings he pitched.

Calloway committed two errors and University school committed five.

The Lakers will take on South Marshall with Clayton Hargrove the probable pitcher.

Clay Signs For 10th Bout With Two Time Champ, Patterson

NEW YORK (UPI) — Cassius Clay, trying his best to become the most active heavyweight champion in the history of boxing, today was expected to sign for his 10th title defense, this one against two-time title holder Floyd Patterson at Las Vegas on April 23.

The 25-year-old Clay, who is scheduled to be inducted into the Army on April 28, was to make the bout official today at a noon press conference. Championship Sports Inc., headed by Tom and Al Bolan, was the promotional outfit hoping to get the bout in Las Vegas.

Until Monday Detroit was very much in the running for the fight, but the E & J Sports Club failed to get the necessary finances and didn't come to terms with Patterson over his share of the receipts.

The Detroit syndicate has not given up hope of landing the bout, but the attitude was definitely more in favor of Las Vegas at the present. Late Monday night Mrs. Gene Wilson, head of the E & J Sports Club, said she would file an injunction to keep Clay from fighting in Las Vegas.

Mrs. Wilson claimed her organization was given until midnight Monday to square things with Patterson, but that Clay's people had phoned her early in the evening to tell her that the deal was off.

She said that the Clay camp clearly had violated the agreement and that she would try and prevent the fight from being held in Las Vegas if possible.

If the bout comes off as expected it will mark the second time Patterson has fought Clay for the championship. The 31-year-old ex-champ tangled with Clay on Nov. 22, 1963, at Las Vegas and was stopped in the 12th round after suffering a severe beating.

Patterson, at that time, was bothered by a back injury but since then has recovered enough to defeat three straight opponents by knockouts.

Changes Are Agreeing With Johnson And Shannon; Cards Win Over Twins 6-1 Monday

By VITO STELLINO

Mike Shannon went to third base like a tourist this spring while Deron Johnson moved back to the position like a guy going home.

But if Monday's exhibition games were any indication, the position is agreeing with both players despite their opposite backgrounds at third base.

Shannon, who had never played the position before spring training, ripped out three hits to boost his exhibition average to .364 as the St. Louis Cardinals whipped the Minnesota Twins 6-1.

Johnson, who led the majors in runs-batted-in while playing third base in 1965 but slumped last year in the outfield, collected two singles and a double and drove in four runs as the Cincinnati Reds turned back the Detroit Tigers 6-4.
